Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

"Are you able to confirm if the birth certificate enclosed relates to the deceased?"

Do you hold any of the following information?

A birth certificate or an alternative date and place of birth for the deceased?

Any information concerning the marital status of the deceased. If so, would you be in apposition to provide details relating to date and place of same?

Any genealogical information relating to the deceased, his siblings, parents or grandparents?

A medical card, driving licence or passport relating to the deceased. If so, can you provide details of the date of birth and/or birthplace as recorded there?

Any other civil certificates (birth, marriage, death or divorce records) relating to the above –named deceased or other family members?"

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division is unable to confirm if the photocopy birth certificate you enclosed with your request relates to the deceased.

The Division does not hold any information pertaining to the remainder of your request.
