Dear Lionel,

It's good to hear from you.

I've asked for a meeting with Tale Heydarov, but it hasn't quite been fixed up yet, although it may well happen next week.

As you know, 17 December is the date for the planned Shah Deniz II Final Investment Decision and we're expecting the Foreign Secretary to visit. We haven't confirmed his programme yet as his travel plans and exact arrival and departure times are yet to be fixed. So I'm not yet sure of what we'll be doing for him on the 17th and whether we'll have time for any more public events.

As it stands we have no other events planned for that week, mainly as most of the international representatives will be away on holiday. I'm planning to leave myself on the afternoon of the 19th.

So I'd be happy to meet with you on either the 18th or 19th, once the visit is out of the way, but given how uncertain things are at the moment, would you mind if I got back to you to confirm the exact time later on next week?

Best wishes,

Lionel,

I should have time to meet on Wednesday after the Foreign Secretary has departed.

Would 1000 in the Embassy suit you?

Lionel,

BP and SCOAR are in the lead on the organisation of the main signing ceremony event, which seems to be set for 1100 – 1400 at the Heydar Aliyev Centre.

As far as I'm aware, there won't be any other events linked to the signing. [redacted]

I hope that is helpful and I look forward to seeing you next week.

Dear Charles,

Thank you so much for coming out to Baku. As always, we found it immensely useful to have you here to open doors and focus minds.

Thank you also for taking the time to follow up the discussions today with the key people back home.

We'll follow up with the FCO on official channels.

Best wishes,

Dear Irfan,

Many thanks for all the work which you and your team put in to making my couple of days in Baku so valuable once again. Although it was inevitable that a visiting Head of State would cut across some of our planned meetings, I was still very pleased by the meetings that you secured and the positive content.

I have had a number of discussions on my return. I need to be a bit Delphic by email, but I hope the meaning will be clear! Please do share this with anyone else you feel appropriate.

[redacted]

I think that's all to report for now and many thanks again for all your help. It was great to be back!

Best,

Charles

Lionel,

Just briefly popped in to the Embassy in the middle of election observations to catch up on emails.

This is the first I've heard of this project. Copying to [redacted] has any knowledge.

Needless to say, we'd be grateful for any further information you pick up.

Regards,
