FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0640-14

Thank you for your email dated 26 June 2014 asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked for:

All travel warning/alerts that were produced by the FCO between 2011 and 2013. All I would like to request is the country in question and the date in which the warning was made.

We have now completed the search for the information you requested. We publish and update travel advice on the Gov.uk website. We keep a log of the date we update travel advice for each county, please find attached a spreadsheet containing data covering 2011 to 2013. You may find it useful to consult the link below to the National Archives website, which archives some of the FCO.Gov.uk web pages.

http://webarchive.nationalarchives.gov.uk\*/http://www.fco.gov.uk/

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless it is exempt. The information we have supplied to you may now be published on our website together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. You can find details on the arrangement for re-using Crown Copyright information on the TNA website.

Yours sincerely,

Desk Officer
Consular Directorate
