Your Freedom Of Information Request: 0938-15

Thank you for your request for information which we received on 23 September 2015. In your request you asked for:

“...an electronic and/or paper copy of a document which was prepared by the FCO in response to the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights' (OHCHR) consultation process as part of its 'Initiative on enhancing accountability and access to remedy in cases of business involvement in human rights abuses'.

The UK government's submission is cited in the document 'Summary of Stakeholder feedback to the Independent expert study' dated September 2014”.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you have requested. Please find attached an electronic copy of the UK response to the 2014 questionnaire. This information is also already publicly available via the following link <http://www.ohchr.org/EN/Issues/Business/Pages/ImplementationGP.aspx>

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website. Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely,

Business & Human Rights Policy Officer

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
