

O-201-15

ORDER under the Companies Act 2006

In the matter of application

No. 879 by David Sands

For a change of company name of registration

No. 09225047

DECISION

The company name ST ROBOTICS LIMITED has been registered since 18 September 2014 under number 09225047.

By an application filed on 26 January 2015, Mr David Sands applied for a change of name of this registration under the provisions of section 69(1) of the Companies Act 2006 (the Act).

A copy of this application was sent to the primary respondent's registered office on 16 February 2015, in accordance with rule 3(2) of the Company Names Adjudicator Rules 2008. No response was received. Also on that date, the Tribunal wrote to Mr Paresh Natwarlal Parekh to inform him that the applicant had requested that he be joined to the proceedings. He did not reply and was subsequently joined to the proceedings.

On 30 March 2015, the parties were advised that no defence had been received to the application and so the adjudicator may treat the application as not being opposed. The parties were granted a period of 14 days to request a hearing in relation to this matter, if they so wished. No request for a hearing was made.

The primary respondent did not file a defence within the one month period specified by the adjudicator under rule 3(3). Rule 3(4) states

“The primary respondent, before the end of that period, shall file a counter-statement on the appropriate form, otherwise the adjudicator may treat it as not opposing the application and may make an order under section 73(1).”

Under the provisions of this rule, the adjudicator may exercise discretion so as to treat the respondent as opposing the application. In this case I can see no reason to exercise such discretion and, therefore, decline to do so.

As the primary respondent has not responded to the allegations made, it is treated as not opposing the application. Therefore, in accordance with section 73(1) of the Act I make the following order:

O-201-15

- (a) ST ROBOTICS LIMITED shall change its name within one month of the date of this order to one that is not an offending nameⁱ;
- (b) ST ROBOTICS LIMITED and Mr Paresh Natwarlal Parekh shall:
 - (i) take such steps as are within their power to make, or facilitate the making, of that change;
 - (ii) not to cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with a name that is an offending name.

If no such change is made within one month of the date of this order, I will determine a new company name as per section 73(4) of the Act and will give notice of that change under section 73(5) of the Act.

All respondents, including individual co-respondents, have a legal duty under Section 73(1)(b)(ii) of the Companies Act 2006 not to cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with an offending name; this includes the current company. Non-compliance may result in an action being brought for contempt of court and may result in a custodial sentence.

Mr David Sands, having been successful, is entitled to a contribution towards his costs. I order ST ROBOTICS LIMITED and Mr Paresh Natwarlal Parekh, being jointly and severally liable, to pay Mr David Sands costs on the following basis:

Fee for application:	£400
Statement of case:	£400
Total:	£800

This sum is to be paid within seven days of the expiry of the appeal period or within seven days of the final determination of this case if any appeal against this decision is unsuccessful.

Any notice of appeal against this decision to order a change of name must be given within one month of the date of this order. Appeal is to the High Court in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and to the Court of Session in Scotland.

The company adjudicator must be advised if an appeal is lodged, so that implementation of the order is suspended.

Dated this 29th day of April 2015

ⁱAn “offending name” means a name that, by reason of its similarity to the name associated with the applicant in which he claims goodwill, would be likely— to be the subject of a direction under section 67 (power of Secretary of State to direct change of name), or to give rise to a further application under section 69.
