

O-563-16

ORDER under the Companies Act 2006

In the matter of application No. 1265

By Lego Juris A/S and Lego Company Limited

for a change of company name of registration

No. 09911326

DECISION

The company name ORDER YOUR LEGO LIMITED has been registered since 10 December 2015.

By an application filed on 14 September 2016, Lego Juris A/S and Lego Company Limited applied for a change of name of this registration under the provisions of section 69(1) of the Companies Act 2006 (the Act).

A copy of this application was sent to the primary respondent's registered office on 19 September 2016, in accordance with rule 3(2) of the Company Names Adjudicator Rules 2008. The copy of the application was sent by Royal Mail special delivery. On 23 September 2016, this letter was returned to the tribunal by the Royal Mail marked "Return Unknown At This Address" and on 18 October 2016, the letter was reissued to the primary respondent's registered office by ordinary post. This letter was also returned to the tribunal marked as above.

On 3 November 2016, the parties were advised that no defence had been received to the application and so the adjudicator may treat the application as not being opposed. The parties were granted a period of 14 days to request a hearing in relation to this matter, if they so wished. No request for a hearing was made. Once again the letter sent to the primary respondent's registered office was returned to the tribunal marked as above.

Despite all of the tribunal's letters being sent to the address of the primary respondent's registered office as it appears on the records of Companies House, the primary respondent did not file a defence within the one month period specified by the adjudicator under rule 3(3). Rule 3(4) states:

"The primary respondent, before the end of that period, shall file a counter-statement on the appropriate form, otherwise the adjudicator may treat it as not opposing the application and may make an order under section 73(1)."

Under the provisions of this rule, the adjudicator may exercise discretion so as to treat the respondent as opposing the application. In this case I can see no reason to exercise such discretion and, therefore, decline to do so.

O-563-16

As the primary respondent has not responded to the allegations made, it is treated as not opposing the application. Therefore, in accordance with section 73(1) of the Act I make the following order:

- (a) ORDER YOUR LEGO LIMITED shall change its name within one month of the date of this order to one that is not an offending nameⁱ;
- (b) ORDER YOUR LEGO LIMITED shall:
 - (i) take such steps as are within its power to make, or facilitate the making, of that change;
 - (ii) not cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with a name that is an offending name.

In accordance with s.73(3) of the Act, this order may be enforced in the same way as an order of the High Court or, in Scotland, the Court of Session

In any event, if no such change is made within one month of the date of this order, I will determine a new company name as per section 73(4) of the Act and will give notice of that change under section 73(5) of the Act.

Lego Juris A/S and Lego Company Limited having been successful are entitled to a contribution towards their costs. I order ORDER YOUR LEGO LIMITED to pay Lego Juris A/S and Lego Company Limited (jointly) costs on the following basis:

Fee for application:	£400
Statement of case:	£400
Total:	£800

This sum is to be paid within seven days of the expiry of the appeal period or within seven days of the final determination of this case if any appeal against this decision is unsuccessful.

Any notice of appeal against this decision to order a change of name must be given within one month of the date of this order. Appeal is to the High Court in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and to the Court of Session in Scotland.

O-563-16

The company adjudicator must be advised if an appeal is lodged, so that implementation of the order is suspended.

Dated this 28th day of November 2016

Christopher Bowen
Company Names Adjudicator

ⁱAn “offending name” means a name that, by reason of its similarity to the name associated with the applicant in which he claims goodwill, would be likely— to be the subject of a direction under section 67 (power of Secretary of State to direct change of name), or to give rise to a further application under section 69.