Dear

Thank you for your email of 12 May 2015 requesting the following information:

“an up to date list of subcontractors, suppliers and consultants & telephone numbers involved in the construction work for military buildings and installations . . . which is part of the redevelopment of the existing military Air Station at RNAS Yeovilton.”

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some information in scope of your request is held.

The information you have requested can be found below:

The consultants for the project are Mott Macdonald and their telephone number is 0777 173 4323.

The rest of the information in your request is either not held by the Ministry of Defence or section 21 of the Act has been applied (the information is reasonably accessible by other means). Section 21 is an absolute exemption and there is therefore no requirement to consider the public interest in making a decision to withhold the information.

Yours sincerely,

DIO Secretariat

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed.
