The Referendums Relating to Council Tax Increases (Principles) (England) Report 2016/17

Legislative background

General

1. Under section 52ZBa of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 (“the 1992 Act”) each billing authority and precepting authority must determine whether its relevant basic amount of council tax^b for a financial year (“the year under consideration”) is excessive. If an authority’s relevant basic amount of council tax is excessive a referendum must be held in relation to that amount.
2. Under section 52ZCc of the 1992 Act the question of whether an authority’s relevant basic amount of council tax is excessive must be decided in accordance with a set of principles determined by the Secretary of State. A set of principles —
 - may contain one principle or two or more principles, and
 - must constitute or include a comparison between the authority’s relevant basic amount of council tax for the year under consideration and its relevant basic amount of council tax for the financial year immediately preceding the year under consideration^d.
3. In setting principles for the year under consideration the Secretary of State may determine categories of authority. If the Secretary of State does so the same principles must be determined for all authorities falling within the same category and if an authority does not fall within any of the categories its relevant basic amount of council tax is not capable of being excessive for the year under consideration.
4. If the Secretary of State does not determine categories of authority for the year under consideration, any principles determined for the year must be such that the same set is determined for all authorities^f.
5. The principles for a financial year must be set out in a report which must be laid before and approved by the House of Commons. If the report for a financial year is not approved on or before the date on which the local government finance report for the same year is approved by the House of Commons, no principles have effect for that

^a Section 52ZB was inserted into the 1992 Act by Schedule 5 to the Localism Act 2011.

^b The term “relevant basic amount of council tax” is defined in section 52ZX of the 1992 Act (inserted as above and amended by section 41(1) and (9) to (13) of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014).

^c Section 52ZC was inserted into the 1992 Act by Schedule 5 to the Localism Act 2011.

^d Section 52ZC(2) and (3) of the 1992 Act.

^e Section 52ZC(4) of the 1992 Act.

^f Section 52ZC(5) of the 1992 Act.

year and accordingly no authority's relevant basic amount of council tax is capable of being excessive for that year^a.

The Greater London Authority

6. The Greater London Authority ("the GLA") calculates two different basic amounts of council tax for a financial year —
 - an amount which applies to the City of London and which does not include any amount in respect of the Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime, and
 - an amount which applies to all parts of Greater London other than the City of London and which includes an amount in respect of the Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime^b.
7. The GLA's relevant basic amount of council tax is defined by reference to these two amounts. In particular —
 - the relevant basic amount derived from the first of the amounts mentioned in paragraph 6 above is referred to in the 1992 Act as the GLA's unadjusted relevant basic amount of council tax, and
 - the relevant basic amount derived from the second of the amounts mentioned in paragraph 6 above is referred to in the 1992 Act as the GLA's adjusted relevant basic amount of council tax^c.
8. A principle that applies to the GLA, and that constitutes or includes a comparison between the GLA's relevant basic amount of council tax for the year under consideration and the financial year immediately preceding that year, may only provide for —
 - a comparison between unadjusted relevant basic amounts of council tax,
 - a comparison between adjusted relevant basic amounts of council tax, or
 - both^d.

^b Sections 88(2) and 89(3) of the Greater London Authority Act 1999. Section 88(2) was substituted by section 77(1) and (3) of the Localism Act 2011 and section 89(4) (which is mentioned in section 89(3)) was substituted by section 77(1) and (7) of that Act. The Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime was established by section 3 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011.

^c Section 52ZX(4) of the 1992 Act.

^d Section 52ZC(6) of the 1992 Act.

The Report

9. This Report is made by the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government and laid before the House of Commons under section 52ZD(1) of the 1992 Act.
10. The Report applies to all billing authorities and all major precepting authorities(a) (other than a mayoral combined authority(b)). In relation to 2016-17 the Report specifies principles for those authorities for the purposes of section 52ZC(1) of the 1992 Act. Accordingly no principles are specified for local precepting authorities for that year.

Principles for the financial year beginning on 1st April 2016

11. The principles which apply for 2016-17 are set out in Annex A to this Report. If this Report is approved by resolution of the House of Commons the principles will have effect for that financial year.

Rt Hon Greg Clark MP

b A mayoral combined authority is a major precepting authority by virtue of section 39(1)(ab) of the 1992 Act as amended by section 5 of the Cities and Local Government Devolution Act 2016 (c.1). The election for the mayor of the first mayoral combined authority, Greater Manchester, will (subject to Parliamentary approval) take place in May 2017.
