FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 1059-15

Thank you for your email of 2 November 2015 asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I would like to request the following information with regards to the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, specifically those based at King Charles Street:

- (a) How many employees are based at King Charles Street?*
- (b) How many employees based at King Charles Street identify as Christian?*
- (c) How many employees based at King Charles Street identify as Muslim?*
- (d) How many employees based at King Charles Street identify as followers of other religions?*
- (e) How many employees based at King Charles Street identify as not party to any religion?*

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

There are currently 2379 FCO UK based staff in King Charles Street. This does not include contractors, or staff employed by other Government Departments and Non government organisations providing services to the FCO.

Recording of religion and other diversity information is voluntary for staff and they are not required to provide this information. Based on the data we have, please find below a breakdown of the religion of staff based in KCS:

Christian	630
Muslim	54
Other Religion	83
Agnostic	165
Atheist	218
No Religion	155
Do Not Wish To Declare	260
Not recorded	814

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely,

Head of Management Information
People & Workforce Department

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
