Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: FOI 0971-16

Thank you for your email of 17 October asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

I would like to request a list of businesses and individuals who have been invited to join the Prime Minister and Liam Fox on their trade mission to India, November 6 - 8.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

This answer to your request is already reasonably accessible. Under Section 21 of the Act, we are not required to provide information in response to a request if it is already reasonably accessible to the applicant. Answers on this subject are available to view here:

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

Yours sincerely,

South Asia Department
