

Erratum Notice

Special Consideration in GCSE and A Level: Summer 2015 Exam Series

This release was originally published on 3 November 2015. The exam board CCEA has since informed us of an error in the data it submitted on the number of scripts marked during the summer 2015 exam series.

As a result, the following sections of the report will need to be corrected:

- The increase in the number of candidate scripts between the 2014 and 2015 summer series went from 3 per cent to 4 per cent, on the front page.
- The increase in the number of candidate scripts between the 2014 and 2015 summer series went from 3 per cent to 4 per cent, on page 3.
- Figure 1: Total scripts marked for GCSE and A level, summer exam series 2011 to 2015, on page 3.
- Figure 3: Requests approved for special consideration as a percentage of total scripts marked, 2011 to 2015, on page 5.
- Appendix: Table 1: The total number of scripts marked during the summer exam series, 2011 to 2015, on page 17.
- Appendix: Table 2: Special Consideration requests and approvals during the summer exam series, 2011 to 2015, on page 18.

We have made the amendments and have republish a corrected version of the report on 5 November 2015.
