Ref. FOI 2016/05772

20 June 2016

Dear

Thank you for your email of 3 June 2016 requesting the following information:

"Please can provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act (I understand

How many service family accommodation in the UK do not have a valid, in date, Annual Landlord's Gas Safety Inspection Certificate at the most recent date for which figures are available?

I am aware this information has previously been released under Section 16 of the Act and would appeal for this FOI to be treated in the same light."

I am unable to provide information records to respond to this question under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

However, you have indicated you wish for this to be answered under the FOI Act.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note as of 1 June 2016 there were 2 occupied Service Family Accommodation (SFA) properties in the UK with expired Landlord's Gas Safety Inspection Certificates (LGSIs). MOD is following these up with the aim of having a valid certificate as soon as possible. In addition, there were 175 empty properties with expired LGSIs certificates.

Yours sincerely,

DIO Secretariat
