FOREWORD BY THE CHAIR

Whilst the parading environment was largely stable in 2015/2016, there were a number of challenges, and the Commission was required to manage tensions around a number of parades.

Contributing to a stable environment, the 2,851 loyalist/unionist and 219 nationalist/republican parades notified to the Commission were largely peaceful, followed well established routes, and were consistent with prior years in terms of timing, numbers, and organisers.

The vast majority of Easter Rising commemoration parades were held almost exclusively within nationalist/republican areas and involved good co-operation with the authorities.

Further stability was achieved by a high level of compliance with Commission conditions, which were imposed on about 3.6 per cent¹ of parades. There was also a low level of parade related protest, with only three parading areas, two of them in Belfast, and the other in Rasharkin, attracting formal protests.

The almost full compliance with the requirement to notify parades provided a high level of certainty to the Commission, local communities, the general public and other authorities about how parading events would proceed. There were also few legal challenges of Commission decisions. However, this stability was undermined in a number of areas.

Firstly, two parades, both in Belfast, culminated in public disorder. These were an anti-internment parade and the Twelfth of July Ardoyne interface parade. Other parades, especially in Belfast, required significant policing operations. The Ardoyne interface parading dispute experienced waning support, but continued to raise tensions, with nightly and Saturday protest parades creating an adverse impact upon local north Belfast communities. Tensions were high at three other Belfast parades, the Orange Order's Tour of the North and Whiterock parades, and an anti-immigration parade.

A further challenge was three un-notified Easter Rising parades in Lurgan, Derry/Londonderry and north Belfast. These attracted media and political commentary about paramilitary trappings. A notified Easter Rising 2000 participant parade in Coalisland had conditions imposed about paramilitary clothing and regalia. A number of other longstanding disputes remained unresolved.

The Drumcree dispute entered its 18th year with continued weekly protests and no indication that its divisive legacy approaches any resolution. The impact upon community relations in the town remained adverse.

There were likewise limited opportunities to explore in dialogue the nature of disputes about re-routed parades in towns perceived as nationalist/republican such as Dunloy, Maghera, Bellaghy, Keady and Newtownbutler. These long running disputes attach to themselves the history of the Troubles as experienced in each local area. Extracting these parades from the past remains a significant challenge.

Ongoing tensions about a small number of the larger annual loyalist band parades included complaints about the disruption they caused to local towns on Friday evenings. Five of the 500 annual band parades required conditions. These were at Rasharkin, Newtownbutler, Downpatrick and Newry.

The Commission's approach to its work during the year included its exploration of opportunities for mediation, with initiatives commenced in Rasharkin and Dungiven. Engagement with local communities included outreach visits to Newtownbutler, Londonderry/Derry and east Belfast.

Further changes in the Commission's approach included a new partnership with Mediation Northern Ireland to improve the monitoring of contentious parades, and the improved use of the Commission's eighteen years of records as an increasingly invaluable resource. The electronic notification of parades provided a more user friendly system for organisers to notify their parades.

Judgments on two judicial reviews which were given leave during the year have not yet been decided by the Courts and may therefore raise issues in the coming year for the Commission.

As Chair, I wish to thank the Secretariat. This small efficient team, which was managed competently and energetically by the Secretary, Rene Murray, provided unstinting professional support to the Commission, whilst achieving significant budget savings.

I wish to thank my fellow Commissioners whose mutual trust, rapport and professionalism contributed to a positive environment conducive to decision making. One of the members, Frances McCartney left to take up a full time judicial role whilst two new members, Anne Marshall and Geraldine McGahey joined during the year.

To conclude, the increasing trend for organisers to respond positively to local communities when planning parades has contributed to an increasingly stable parading environment, and whilst entrenched disputes present limited opportunities for progress at present, these are not beyond resolution.

PERFORMANCE REPORT

Overview

The Parades Commission was established on 27 March 1997, initially as a non-statutory body. The Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998, amended by the Public Processions (Amendment) Northern Ireland Order 2005, gives the Commission statutory responsibilities in relation to regulating public processions and related protests.

The Parades Commission operates from a single site in Belfast City Centre. Contact details are as follows:

The Commission's statutory role is set out in the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998. Section 2 (1) of that legislation provides that:

"It shall be the duty of the Commission –

- a) to promote greater understanding by the general public of issues concerning public processions;
- b) to promote and facilitate mediation as a means of resolving disputes concerning public processions;
- c) to keep itself generally informed as to the conduct of public processions and protest meetings;
- d) to keep under review, and make such recommendations as it thinks fit to the Secretary of State concerning, the operation of the Act."

And Section 2(2) provides that:

"The Commission may in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

- a) facilitate mediation between parties to particular disputes concerning proposed public processions and take such other steps as appear to the Commission to be appropriate for resolving disputes;
- b) issue determinations in respect of particular proposed public processions."

The Commission is made up of six Commissioners, including a Chair. They have been appointed by the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland and have a secretariat to support them as they deliver their statutory responsibilities as set out in the Act.

The Secretary to the Commission, Ms Rene Murray, was appointed 9 June 2014. The Secretary is responsible for the effective operation of the secretariat and for managing its financial and manpower resources. The Secretary to the Commission has also been appointed as Accounting Officer.

The secretariat is responsible for providing advice and support to the Chair and Commissioners in support of their aims and objectives, and in undertaking their statutory responsibilities. The Parades Commission had an average of 9 staff in post over the year. The Commission also made use of services provided by external professionals such as media advisors, auditors, mediators and an accountant. In addition, the Commission also has access to the invaluable services provided by a team of volunteers who give their time and expertise to provide independent observation reports on public processions and protests.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Under paragraph 12 (1) of Schedule 1 to the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998, as amended by the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998 (Accounts and Audit) Order 1998, the Commission is required to:

- (a) keep proper accounts and proper records in relation to the accounts; and
- (b) prepare a statement of accounts in respect of each financial year of the Commission.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with a direction issued by the Northern Ireland Office (NIO) under the 1998 Act. The accounts incorporate a Statement of Comprehensive Net Expenditure, a Statement of Financial Position, a Statement of Cash Flows, a Statement of Changes in Taxpayers' Equity and related notes.

GOING CONCERN

The Statement of Financial Position at 31 March 2016 shows total current liabilities of £94,875. This reflects the inclusion of liabilities already incurred which are due for payment in future years.

The future financing of the Parades Commission's liabilities will be met by the NIO. Although the Northern Ireland Executive is currently engaged in a review process that includes the future of parading in Northern Ireland, there is no reason to believe that the NIO's future sponsorship and future parliamentary approval will not be forthcoming. The Parades Commission 2016-17 budget has been approved by the NIO. It has accordingly been considered appropriate to adopt a going concern basis for the preparation of the 2015-16 financial statements.

PARADING ACTIVITIES

The current legislation requires that all public processions, with the exception of funerals and Salvation Army organised parades, are notified to the police at least 28 days before the date of the parade. Parade related protests are required to be notified to the police at least 14 days before the date of the parade. These notices are then passed on to the Parades Commission for consideration under the legislation.

The 2015-16 parading season witnessed a small decrease (44) in the number of notified parades or parade related protests when compared with the previous year (2014-15: 5,074). See table 1

Table 1: detailed breakdown of Parades and Parade related protests

*Other category includes charity, civic, rural and sporting events, as well as church parades. Collectively, these made up 39 percent of the overall total number of parades.

Protestant/Unionist/Loyalist sensitive parades include 313 nightly/weekly parades at Woodvale/Twaddell, Belfast and 54 weekly parades at Garvagh Road, Portadown

Sensitive Parades and Parade Related Protests

Some parades and parade related protests are deemed “sensitive” as they have the potential to raise concerns and community tensions. In making its decisions, the Commission face the difficult task of upholding the rights of not just one group, but also of seeking to balance the conflicting rights of different groups within the statutory criteria laid down in the legislation. It approaches all “sensitive parades” independently and fairly, and remains steadfastly committed to this approach in working with all those involved in the parades issue.

In 2015-16, 548 parades and parade-related protests were subject to restrictions (2014-15: 583). The type of restrictions include the route, size and timing of a parade or protest, type of music to be played, behaviour and dress code.

The Commission members have stated that their overall objective is to help bring about a situation in which parades can take place peacefully in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

KEY ISSUES AND RISKS THAT COULD AFFECT THE COMMISSION IN DELIVERY OF ITS OBJECTIVES

The principal risk identified is anything that would prevent the Commission from discharging its statutory duties in respect of notified processions and related protests. The highest ranking risks relate to our infrastructure, including maintenance of IT and protection of information.

Within the executive processes of the Parades Commission, there is embedded a corporate risk register in line with Government guidance. Risks are identified, assessed in terms of likelihood and impact, and then ranked in terms of priority.

The risk register is kept under constant review and updated by Management as necessary. Management consider signs or warnings of risks altering, examine existing controls to reduce or manage risks and, if necessary, take additional action.

the Commission is a standing agenda item at Commission meetings. The Audit Committee met three times in 2015/16.

2. By 31 March 2016, to have a more user friendly website in line with Commission requirements.
 - A number of enhancements to the website have been developed including advanced search facilities
3. By 31 March 2016, to provide administrative support to the Commission in an efficient, effective and economic manner within budget allocation.
 - Budget for 2015/16 has not been exceeded.

SUSTAINABILITY REPORT

A full sustainable development report is not produced as the Parades Commissions staff complement is below the (250 employees) threshold. As a sponsored body of the NIO, the Parades Commission is signed up to the Carbon Reduction Energy Efficiency Scheme run by the Department of Energy and Climate Change. The aim of the scheme is to lower national carbon emissions by encouraging departments and businesses to become more energy efficient through energy saving projects.

The Commission has a recycling policy that involves the recycling of dry office waste, recycling of print cartridges and the ordering of recycled photocopying paper.

From March 2015, parade and protest organisers were able to notify of parades and parade related protests on-line, reducing use of paper.

REMUNERATION POLICY

The remuneration of the Chair and Commissioners is determined by the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland.

The Parades Commission does not directly employ staff, it seconded staff from the Home Civil Service (HCS) or the Northern Ireland Civil Service (NICS).

For senior civil servants seconded from HCS, the remuneration is set by the Prime Minister, following independent advice from the Review Body on Senior Salaries. In reaching its recommendations, the Review Body has regard to the following considerations:

- the need to recruit, retain and motivate suitably able and qualified people to exercise their responsibilities;
- regional/local variations in labour markets and their effects on the recruitment and retention of staff;
- Government policies for improving the public services, including the requirement on departments to meet the output targets for the delivery of departmental services;
- the funds available to departments as set out in the Government's departmental expenditure limits; and
- Government's inflation target.

For senior civil servants seconded from NICS, the remuneration is set by the Minister for Finance and Personnel following independent advice from the Review Body on Senior Salaries.

Further information about the work of the Review Body can be found at www.ome.uk.com.

The remuneration of all senior civil servants is entirely performance-related. Performance is appraised by line managers in respect of achievement of agreed objectives.

PENSION ARRANGEMENTS

Pension benefits are provided through the Civil Service pension arrangements. From 1 April 2015 a new pension scheme for civil servants was introduced - the Civil Servants and Others Pension Scheme or alpha, which provides benefits on a career average basis with a normal pension age equal to the member's State Pension Age (or 65 if higher). From that date all newly appointed civil servants and the majority of those already in service joined alpha. Prior to that date, civil servants participated in the Principal Civil Service Pension Scheme (PCSPS). The PCSPS has four sections: 3 providing benefits on a final salary basis (classic, premium or classic plus) with a normal pension age of 60; and one providing benefits on a whole career basis (nuvos) with a normal pension age of 65.

These statutory arrangements are unfunded with the cost of benefits met by monies voted by Parliament each year. Pensions payable under classic, premium, classic plus, nuvos and alpha are increased annually in line with Pensions Increase legislation. Existing members of the PCSPS who were within 10 years of their normal pension age on 1 April 2012 remained in the PCSP after 1 April 2015. Those who were between 10 years and 13 years and 5 months from their normal pension age on 1 April 2012 will switch into alpha sometime between 1 June 2015 and 1 February 2022. All members who switch to alpha have their PCSPS benefits 'banked', with those earlier benefits in one of the final salary sections of the PCSPS having those benefits based on their final salary when they leave alpha. (The pension figures quoted for officials show pension earned in PCSPS or alpha – as appropriate. Members joining from October 2002 may opt for either the appropriate defined benefit arrangement or a 'money purchase' stakeholder pension with an employer contribution (partnership pension account).

Employee contributions are salary related and range between 1.5% and 6.85% of pensionable earnings for classic and 3.5% and 8.85% for premium, classic plus and nuvos. Benefits in classic accrue at the rate of 1/80th of final pensionable earnings for each year of service. In addition, a lump sum equivalent to three years initial pension is payable on retirement. For premium, benefits accrue at the rate of 1/60th of final pensionable earnings for each year of service. Unlike classic, there is no automatic lump sum. Classic plus is essentially a hybrid with benefits for service before 1 October 2002 calculated broadly as per classic and benefits for service from October 2002 worked out as in premium. In nuvos a member builds up a pension based on his pensionable earnings during their period of scheme membership. At the end of the scheme year (31 March) the member's earned pension account is credited with 2.3% of their pensionable earnings in that scheme year and the accrued pension is uprated in line with Pensions Increase legislation. In all cases members may opt to give up (commute) pension for a lump sum up to the limits set by the Finance Act 2004.

The partnership pension account is a stakeholder pension arrangement. The employer makes a basic contribution of between 3% and 12.5% up to 30 September 2015 and 8% and 14.75% from 1 October 2015 (depending on the age of the member) into a stakeholder pension product chosen by the employee from a panel of providers. The employee does not have to contribute, but where they do make contributions, the employer will match these up to a limit of 3% of pensionable salary (in addition to the employer's basic contribution). Employers also contribute a further 0.8% of pensionable salary up to 30 September 2015 and 0.5% of pensionable salary from 1 October 2015 to cover the cost of centrally-provided risk benefit cover (death in service and ill health retirement).

The accrued pension quoted is the pension the member is entitled to receive when they reach pension age, or immediately on ceasing to be an active member of the scheme if they are already at or over pension age. Pension age is 60 for members of classic, premium and classic plus and 65 for members of nuvos, and the higher of 65 or State Pension Age for members of alpha. (The pension figures quoted for officials show pension earned in PCSPS or alpha –as appropriate. Where the official has benefits in both the PCSPS and alpha the figure quoted is the combined value of their benefits in the two schemes, but note that part of that pension may be payable from different ages

Further details about the Civil Service pension arrangements can be found at <http://www.civilservicepensionscheme.org.uk> .

Both the Chair and Commissioners are non-Northern Ireland Civil Service, therefore their salaries are not pensionable.

Cash Equivalent Transfer Values

A Cash Equivalent Transfer Value (CETV) is the actuarially assessed capitalised value of the pension scheme benefits accrued by a member at a particular point in time. The benefits valued are the member's accrued benefits and any contingent spouse's pension payable from the scheme. A CETV is a payment made by a pension scheme or arrangement to secure pension benefits in another pension scheme or arrangement when the member leaves a scheme and chooses to transfer the benefits accrued in their former scheme. The pension figures shown relate to the benefits that the individual has accrued as a consequence of their total membership of the pension scheme, not just their service in a senior capacity to which disclosure applies.

The figures include the value of any pension benefit in another scheme or arrangement which the member has transferred to the Civil Service pension arrangements. They also include any additional pension benefit accrued to the member as a result of their buying additional pension benefits at their own cost. CETVs are worked out within the guidelines and framework prescribed by the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries and do not take account of any actual or potential reduction to benefits resulting from Lifetime Allowance Tax which may be due when pension benefits are taken.

Real increase in CETV

This reflects the increase in CETV that is funded by the employer. It does not include the increase in accrued pension due to inflation, contributions paid by the employee (including the value of any benefits transferred from another pension scheme or arrangement) and uses common market valuation factors for the start and end of the period.

COMPENSATION ON EARLY RETIREMENT

There were no redundancy or departure costs paid or payable by the Parades Commission in 2015-16 or 2014-15 in respect of Civil Service or other compensation schemes.

PAYMENTS TO PAST DIRECTORS

No payments have been made to any person who was not a Director at the time the payment was made, but who had been a Director previously.

FAIR PAY DISCLOSURE

The Commission is required to disclose the relationship between the remuneration of the most highly-paid Director or Commissioner in the organisation and the median remuneration of the organisation's workforce.

	2015-16	2014-15
	Salary	Salary
Band of Highest Paid Director's / Commissioner's FTE Total Remuneration	£000 65-70	£000 65-70
Median Total Remuneration	£22,291	£23,952
Ratio	3.03	2.82

The highest paid Director in the Parades Commission in the financial year 2015-16 was £65,000 - £70,000 (2014-15 was £65,000 - £70,000). As the Commissioners are salaried, their salary is the Full Year Equivalent and Full Time Equivalent pay. In 2015-16, the salary of the highest paid Director, was 3.03 times (2014-15: 2.82 times) the median remuneration of the workforce, which was £22,291 (2014-15: £23,952). The increase from 2.82 to 3.02 is due to a small decrease in the median salary as a result of staff changes.

Remuneration ranged from £17,620 to £66,850 (2014-15: £17,620 to £65,422).

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING OFFICER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Under paragraph 12(1) and para (2) of Schedule 1 to the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998, the Secretary of State (with the consent of HM Treasury and Northern Ireland Office) has directed the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland to prepare for each financial year, a statement of accounts in the form and on the basis set out in the Accounts Direction. The accounts are prepared on an accruals basis and must give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland and of its net resource outturn, application of resources, changes in taxpayers' equity and cash flows for the financial year.

In preparing the accounts, the Accounting Officer is required to comply with the requirements of the Government Financial Reporting Manual and in particular to:

- observe the Accounts Direction issued by the Northern Ireland Office on behalf of the Secretary of State, including the relevant accounting and disclosure requirements, and apply suitable accounting policies on a consistent basis;
- make judgements and estimates on a reasonable basis;
- state whether applicable accounting standards as set out in the Government Financial Reporting Manual have been followed, and disclose and explain any material departures in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis
- ensure there is no relevant audit information of which the entity's auditors are unaware, and take all the steps necessary to be aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the entity's auditors are aware of that information; and
- confirm that the annual report and accounts as a whole is fair, balanced and understandable and take personal responsibility for the annual report and accounts and the judgments required for determining that it is fair, balanced and understandable.

The Accounting Officer of the Northern Ireland Office has designated the Secretary as the Accounting Officer for the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland. The responsibilities of an Accounting Officer, including responsibility for the propriety and regularity of the public finances for which the Accounting Officer is answerable, for keeping proper records and for safeguarding the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland's assets, are set out in Managing Public Money published by the HM Treasury.

GOVERNANCE REPORT

1. Introduction and Context

The Parades Commission for Northern Ireland (the Commission) is an independent executive non-departmental public body sponsored by the Northern Ireland Office (NIO) which was created on 27 March 1997. It was given statutory responsibilities on 16 February 1998 by the commencement of the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998.

From 1 April 2015 to 31 March 2016, the Commission had six Commissioners, including its Chair. It is supported by a secretariat. The secretariat had on average 9 seconded staff, including myself, the Secretary, also seconded. I am also appointed as Accounting Officer. The Commission normally meets on a weekly basis and its approval is required for any significant changes relating to the operation of the Parades Commission. The Commission also has an Audit and Risk Committee which meets formally three times a year, or more frequently as required, to assist and advise the Accounting Officer on governance responsibilities. Any recommendations made by the Audit and Risk Committee have to be approved by the Commission.

Management and I meet with the sponsor division within the NIO on a quarterly basis to discuss corporate issues.

2. Scope of Responsibility

I was appointed Accounting Officer on 9 June 2014, and was advised about the system of internal control in operation prior to my appointment by my predecessor and the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee.

As Accounting Officer, I have responsibility for maintaining a sound system of internal governance that supports the achievement of the Parades Commission's policies, aims and objectives, whilst safeguarding the public funds and departmental assets for which I am personally responsible, in accordance with the responsibilities assigned to me in Managing Public Money. As such, I am responsible for ensuring propriety and regularity in the handling of those public funds; and for the day-to-day operations and management of the Commission.

In my role as Secretary to the Commission, I am responsible for the effective operation of the secretariat and for managing its financial and manpower resources. I provide advice and support to the Chair and Commissioners in support of their aims and objectives and in undertaking their statutory responsibilities. One of the statutory responsibilities is "to keep under review, and make such recommendations as it thinks fit to the Secretary of State, concerning, the operation of the Act". There were no recommendations made to the Secretary of State in 2015-16. There were no Ministerial directions in the 2015-16 financial year.

3. Governance Framework

In my role as Accounting Officer, I function with the support of the Audit and Risk Committee and my Management Team. This is outlined below:

Audit and Risk Committee

The Audit and Risk Committee supports the Accounting Officer and the Commission in their responsibilities for issues of risk, control and governance by reviewing whether proportionate assurances for meeting the Commission's and Accounting Officer's responsibilities are available and by testing the reliability and integrity of these assurances. This includes oversight of the effective operation and impact of the Framework document and the Commission's business planning process.

The Audit and Risk Committee is comprised of all Commissioners, except the Chair of the Commission and must have two Commissioners in attendance to be quorate. The Audit and Risk Committee is also attended by the Accounting Officer, Deputy Secretary, Internal Audit, the National Audit Office (as external auditors), external accountant and representatives from the sponsor department. The Committee meets three times per year and more frequently as required. In addition to providing all Commissioners with a copy of the minutes of meetings of the Committee, the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee briefs the Commission after each meeting.

Attendance at the Audit and Risk Committee is disclosed in table below:

Commissioner / Secretariat	Audit and Risk Committee Attendance
Sarah Havlin (Chair)	2/3
Frances McCartney	3/3
Colin Kennedy	3/3
Rene Murray	3/3

The Audit and Risk Committee, over the course of the year, fulfilled its role in reviewing the comprehensiveness of assurances, risk processes, and the integrity of financial reports to be able to provide assurance on same to the Commission.

During the 2015-16 financial year the Audit and Risk Committee advised the Commission on the following significant areas:

- The accounting policies, the accounts and the annual report of the organisation, including the process for review of the accounts prior to submission for audit, level of errors identified and managements letter of representation to the external auditors;
- The risk management process;
- The planned activity and results of both internal and external audit;
- The adequacy of management responses to issues identified by audit activity, including the external auditor’s Audit Completion Report and the progress on the implementation of recommendations from internal and external audit reports; and
- Specific, significant issues for the attention of the Committee.

Based on the views expressed by the Accounting Officer, the Internal Auditors and the External Auditors, the Committee was satisfied with its overall effectiveness.

4. Corporate Governance Code

The Commission conducts its affairs in accordance with a comprehensive corporate governance framework. Although not part of central government, the Commission is expected to follow the Corporate Governance Code (Corporate governance in central government departments, code of good practice, published by HM Treasury and the Cabinet Office, July 2011) as far as applicable. The Commission is compliant with the Code in a number of ways. The Commission has a comprehensive Framework document agreed with the NIO which sets down its values and principles, and lines of accountability.

I complete Stewardship Statements bi-annually, based on my own knowledge plus assurances from managers within the secretariat. These statements are sent to the sponsor department. The purpose of the statements is to improve management and control by identifying management's specific responsibilities and seeking a written assurance that they have been exercised with due care and attention. These statements also inform the content of this Governance Statement.

5. Commission's Performance

Throughout 2015-16, the Commission effectively discharged its statutory functions and duties. It listened to evidence and where necessary, issued determinations on parades and parade related protests. In line with best practice, the operational procedures of the Commission and the quality of data used by the Commission is kept under continuous review to ensure that the Commission is content that it is provided with all requisite information to enable it to make informed decisions.

The Commission, with assistance from the secretariat, has developed systems and processes within the Parades Commission. Whilst the Commission was content to continue with the strategic direction outlined during the 'Strategic Planning 2014-17' in February 2014, one additional strategic objective was included, to incorporate the Commission's operational role i.e. to consider particular proposed parades and to issue determinations as deemed necessary. The four original strategic objectives were to seek to empower and support communities to take control and make their own decisions; commit to improving strategic engagement with parades organisers, protest groups and wider groups; to promote positive feedback / success stories of positive parades; and, explore strategic partnerships to enhance the work of the Commission.

With these strategic objectives agreed, in March 2015, the Commission developed its objectives for the forthcoming year, forming a basis for the 2015-16 Business Plan. The objectives set for 2015-16 reflect the Commission's statutory duties and functions, incorporating its strategic vision. The 2015-16 Business Plan can be found on the website².

The Commissioners completed a self-assessment, to evaluate their performance in 2015-16. The Commission has now completed two of its three year appointment and is generally content that all areas are operating effectively.

The Commission does not lead on the governance statement, which is written by the Accounting Officer, reviewed by the Audit and Risk Committee, and cleared by the Commission before publication.

6. Internal Audit Reports Submitted to Audit and Risk Committee

In 2014-15, ASM were appointed as internal auditors to the Parades Commission, through a tender competition. The services provided by ASM operate to standards defined by the Public Sector Internal Audit Standards.

Internal Audit's work plan is informed by an analysis of the risk to which the Commission is exposed.

Internal Audit's findings are presented to the Audit and Risk Committee and copies of all final reports are sent to me, as Accounting Officer. In addition, Internal Audit provides an annual written statement to the Audit and Risk Committee, setting out a formal opinion on the adequacy and effectiveness of the Committee's risk management, control and governance processes. Internal Audit conducted three reviews on the following activities during 2015-16:

- Post Implementation Review of Notification Management System (NMS); the Review:
- The Procurement of Mediation Services Review; and
- Follow-up Review of outstanding recommendations.

The Follow-up Review concluded that of the 4 outstanding recommendations from 2014-15, three were fully implemented and one was no longer deemed applicable. The recommendation not implemented related to a training needs analysis for Commissioners.

In the Annual Assurance Statement, the Internal Auditors stated that, during the year ended 31 March 2016, the Commission's systems in relation to risk management, control and governance were adequate and operated effectively, thereby providing an overall substantial assurance in relation to the effective and efficient achievement of the Commission's objectives.

7. Risk Assessment

The Commission's corporate governance controls are designed to manage risk to a reasonable level rather than to eliminate all risk of failure to achieve policies, aims and objectives; it can therefore only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance of effectiveness. Risks are managed on an ongoing basis in a process that is designed to identify and prioritise the risks to the achievement of the Commission's policies, aims and objectives; to evaluate the likelihood of those risks being realised and the impact should they be realised; and to manage them efficiently, effectively and economically. The system of internal control has been in place in the Parades Commission for the year ended 31 March 2016 and up to the date of approval of the annual report and accounts, and accords with Treasury guidance.

The system is based on a framework of regular management information, administrative procedures, including the segregation of duties, and a system of delegation and accountability. In particular it includes:

- Comprehensive budgeting systems with an annual budget which is reviewed and agreed by the Secretary to the Commission;
- Regular reviews of periodic and annual financial reports which indicate financial performance; and
- As appropriate, formal project management disciplines.

Throughout the year the Commission had a risk register in place that has been assessed and considered at management level. The register had been scrutinised, discussed and ratified at both the Audit and Risk Committee and the Commission.

The Commission operates a "traffic light" corporate risk register in line with Government guidance. The Commission revised its corporate risk register following feedback received from the internal auditors. Changes have been made to the format of the register and each risk has been assigned a risk owner. The register is kept under constant review, with a formal quarterly review, and update by management as necessary. Risks are identified and assessed in terms of likelihood of occurrence and impact of risk. Management considers signs of risks changing, examined existing risk control tools and, if necessary, take remedial action.

The Commission's risks are identified by the Commissioners, by me as Accounting Officer and by my management team and they are ratified by the Audit and Risk Committee and the Commission. The risks have been ranked according to 'Likelihood' and 'Impact'. We have also assessed what actions are in place, or need to be taken, to mitigate the organisational risks identified.

During the course of 2015-16 our main risks were financial and reputational risks, including maintenance of IT and protection of our information. One new risk emerged in 2015-16 regarding failure to identify opportunities for mediation. Ongoing operational risks are managed as follows:

- As an on-going process any risk is identified, evaluated and controlled by me and my management team and following advice from the Audit and Risk Committee;
- Any changes to the assessment and evaluation of risk are noted by the Audit and Risk Committee and ratified by the full Commission; and
- The full Commission's lead on determining and evaluating the Commission's risks; and
- risks are communicated to staff by management, at monthly secretariat meetings and in the risk register.

8. Personal Data Related Incidents

There were no personal data related incidents formally reported to the Information Commissioner's Office.

9. Significant Internal Control Issues

There were no significant internal control issues identified during 2015-16.

10. Other issues of note

During 2015-16 I authorised the write-off of £1,102.61 for sums previously charged through the Parades Commission accounts which were due to be recovered. The sums relate to an outstanding phone bill of a former Commissioner. The period for which the charges relate is February 2011 to March 2013.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL TO THE HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT

I certify that I have audited the financial statements of Parades Commission for Northern Ireland for the year ended 31 March 2016 under the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998. The financial statements comprise: the Statements of Comprehensive Net Expenditure, Financial Position, Cash Flows, Changes in Taxpayers' Equity; and the related notes. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out within them. I have also audited the information in the Remuneration Report that is described in that report as having been audited.

Respective responsibilities of the Commission, Accounting Officer and auditor

As explained more fully in the Statement of Accounting Officer's Responsibilities, the Accounting Officer is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. My responsibility is to audit, certify and report on the financial statements in accordance with the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998. I conducted my audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require me and my staff to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition I read all the financial and non-financial information in the Performance Report and Accountability Report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by me in the course of performing the audit. If I become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies I consider the implications for my certificate.

I am required to obtain evidence sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the expenditure and income recorded in the financial statements have been applied to the purposes intended by Parliament and the financial transactions recorded in the financial statements conform to the authorities which govern them.

Opinion on regularity

In my opinion, in all material respects the expenditure and income recorded in the financial statements have been applied to the purposes intended by Parliament and the financial transactions recorded in the financial statements conform to the authorities which govern them.

Opinion on financial statements

In my opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland's affairs as at 31 March 2016 and of the net expenditure for the year then ended; and
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998 and Secretary of State directions issued thereunder.

Opinion on other matters

In my opinion:

- the part of the Remuneration Report to be audited has been properly prepared in accordance with Secretary of State directions made under the Public Processions (Northern Ireland) Act 1998; and

- the information given in the Strategic Report, Director's Report and Governance Statement for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which I report by exception

I have nothing to report in respect of the following matters which I report to you if, in my opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for my audit have not been received from branches not visited by my staff; or
- the financial statements and the part of the Remuneration Report to be audited are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- I have not received all of the information and explanations I require for my audit; or
- the Governance Statement does not reflect compliance with HM Treasury's guidance.

Report

I have no observations to make on these financial statements.

Notes to the Parades Commission's Accounts for the year ended 31 March 2016

1. Statement of accounting policies

The Financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the 2015-16 Government Financial Reporting Manual (FReM) issued by HM Treasury. The accounting policies contained in the FReM apply International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adapted or interpreted for the public sector context. Where the FReM permits a choice of accounting policy, the accounting policy which is judged to be most appropriate to the particular circumstances of the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland for the purpose of giving a true and fair view has been selected. The particular policies adopted by the Parades Commission for Northern Ireland for the year ending 31 March 2016 are described below. They have been applied consistently in dealing with items that are considered material to the accounts.

1.1 Accounting convention

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention, modified by the revaluation of non-current assets.

The accounts comply with the accounting standards issued or adopted by the Accounting Standards Board, FReM and accounting and disclosure requirements issued by the Treasury, insofar as those requirements are appropriate.

1.2 Critical accounting estimates and key judgements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the use of accounting estimates and assumptions. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the accounting policies. We continually evaluate our estimates, assumptions and judgements based on available information and experience. As the use of estimates is inherent in financial reporting, actual results could differ from these estimates. The estimates and assumptions which have the most significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities are discussed below.

(i) - Depreciation of property, plant and equipment

Depreciation is provided in the accounts so as to write-down the respective assets to their residual values over their expected useful lives and as such the selection of the estimated useful lives and the expected residual values of the assets requires the use of estimates and judgements. Details of the useful lives are as shown in Note 1.4.

(ii) - Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Where there is an indication that the carrying value of items of property, plant and equipment may have been impaired through events or changes in circumstances, a review will be undertaken of the recoverable amount of that asset.

1.3 Funding

The Parades Commission is funded directly from expenditure voted by Parliament to the Northern Ireland Office.

1.4 Property, plant and equipment and depreciation

Expenditure on items, or groups of items, of property, plant and equipment costing £1,000 or more (including VAT) is capitalised. Expenditure on a complete computer unit is classified as capital expenditure regardless of the price. Expenditure on printer is classified as capital expenditure if the purchase cost of an individual item (including VAT) is over £500.

On initial recognition, separate component assets are identified and are measured at cost including any costs such as installation directly attributable to bringing them into working condition. Owned assets are subsequently re-valued annually using appropriate indices compiled by the Office for National Statistics.

All non-property operational assets are measured at cost and are subsequently re-valued annually using appropriate indices compiled by the Office for National Statistics (ONS).

Depreciation is provided on a straight line basis at rates calculated to write-off the cost less estimated residual value of each asset over its expected useful life. Depreciation is charged in the month following acquisition. The estimated useful lives for depreciation purposes are:

Furniture & equipment	15 years
Computer hardware	5 years
Computer servers	5 years
Leasehold Improvements	4 Years or length of lease

1.5 Intangible Assets

Identifiable intangible assets are recognised when the Commission controls the asset, it is probable that future economic benefits attributable to the asset will flow to the Commission and the cost of the assets can be reliably measured.

The Commission's intangible assets consist of software licences where expenditure is £1,000 (including VAT) or more.

Intangible assets are re-valued annually using appropriate indices compiled by the ONS. Amortisation is provided on a straight line basis. The estimated useful lives for amortisation purposes are:

Software licences	5 years
Website development	5 years
Computer software	5 years

1.6 Operating Leases

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged against income on a straight line basis over the lease term.

1.7 Pensions

Past and present employees are covered by the provisions of the Principal Civil Service Pension Schemes (PCSPS) and the Principal Civil Service Pension Schemes (NI) (PCSPS (NI)) which are described in the Remuneration and Staff Report. The defined benefit schemes are unfunded and are non-contributory except in respect of dependants' benefits. The Commission recognises the expected cost of these elements on a systematic and rational basis over the period during which it benefits from employees' services by payment to the PCSPS and PCSPS (NI) of amounts calculated on an accruing basis. Liability for payment of future benefits is a charge on the PCSPS and PCSPS (NI). In respect of the defined contribution schemes, the Commission recognises the contributions payable for the year.

1.8 Value Added Tax

The Commission is not VAT registered, therefore all expenditure is inclusive of VAT.

1.9 Staff Costs

Under IAS19 Employee Benefits, all staff costs must be recorded as an expense as soon as the organisation is obligated to pay them. This includes the cost of any untaken leave as at the year end.

1.10 Accounting standards, interpretations and amendments to published standards adopted in the year ended 31 March 2016

The Parades Commission has reviewed the standards, interpretations and amendments to published standards that became effective during 2015-16 and which are relevant to its operations. The adoption of these standards has not had a significant impact on the Commission's financial position or results.

1.11 Impending application of newly issued accounting standards not yet effective

The Parades Commission has not adopted any standards or interpretations in advance of the required implementation dates. It is not expected that any Standards or Interpretations that have been issued by the International Accounting Standards Board but have not been adopted will have a material impact on the financial statements.

1.12 Segmental Reporting

All the activities carried out by the Parades Commission relate to a single business and are reported internally on this basis.

2. Staff numbers and related costs

Staff costs comprise:

7. Financial instruments

As the cash requirements of the Commission are met through funding provided by the Northern Ireland Office, financial instruments play a more limited role in creating and managing risk than would apply to a non-public sector body. The majority of financial instruments relate to contracts to buy non-financial items in line with the non-departmental public bodies expected purchase and usage requirements and the non-departmental public body is therefore exposed to little credit, liquidity or market risk.

The Northern Ireland Office is regarded as a related party. During the year, the Parades Commission has had various material transactions with the Northern Ireland Office including the Crown Solicitor's Office.
