Dear [REDACTED]

Request for Information

Thank you for your email of 27 January 2016. You asked:

I am after all stock numbers of all types of land rovers that are available now and what is going to be available this year and any stock that is purchased and held by you contractors.

Many thanks and is a general enquire for all land rovers available at mod disposal sites and coming out from the mod over next this year and next year thanks.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence (MOD), and I can confirm that information in scope of your requests is held.

The number of vehicles available for sale changes on a daily basis. The following table is at 23 February 2016.

Freelander	1
Discovery	1
Ceremonial	1
Panama	6
130	6
110	845
90	72
L/R Ambulance	98
Snatch 2A	151
T Weapons Mount Installation Kit	1

Defence Equipment & Support

Total	1182
-------	------

Please note that the details relate to vehicle type only; the disposal route taken will vary according to their material condition. These vehicles remain the property of the Ministry of Defence until the point of sale.

It is not possible to forecast the future availability of surplus Land Rovers. Vehicles can be declared surplus to requirement at any time for a variety of reasons.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

DE&S Secretariat
