Ref. FOI2016/06322

Dear

Thank you for your email of 16 June 2016 requesting the following information:

"My name is [redacted] and I am trying to find out as much history about the fauld explosion its self and how it affected the local area in years after. Would it be possible to request a detailed over head area map possibly marking the entrances and emergency exits that were in place a underground map would be helpful also but I understand that may not be possible"

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Under Section 21 of the Act (Information reasonably accessible to the applicant by other means) the documentation of that age is held at the National Archives at Kew. The address is:

The National Archives,
Kew,
Richmond,
Surrey,
TW9 4DU.

Web Address: <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 2nd Floor, Zone N, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

DIO Secretariat
