

Dear

Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your e-mail dated 9 March requesting information under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You asked for:

How many Jaguar Vehicles there are in Northern Ireland. Can you break this number down into model type.

The information requested is provided in the attached spreadsheet. It gives the number of Jaguar cars licensed in Northern Ireland by model. This information reflects the position as at 30 September 2014.

The information which follows concerns the procedures for making any complaint you might have about the reply. Please quote the reference number of this letter in any future communications about it.

Yours sincerely

ppRobert Toft
Head of Data Sharing Policy & Freedom of Information Team

Your right to complain to DVLA and the Information Commissioner

If you are not happy with the reply to your request, you can ask DVLA to re-consider the response you received by writing (within two calendar months of receiving this response) to either foi@dvla.gsi.gov.uk or DVLA Freedom of Information Team, DSPG/FOI, D16, DVLA, Swansea SA6 7JL.

DVLA will acknowledge and consider your request, re-visiting the response provided. This is known as an Internal Review and will be considered by a staff member not involved with the original reply.

If you disagree with the outcome of the Internal Review, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
