SECTION 7 - Personal History

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 enables criminal convictions to become 'spent' or ignored after a 'rehabilitation period'. The length of the rehabilitation period depends on the sent nce given. For a custodial (prison) sentence the rehabilitation period is decided by the original sentence, but he time served. Prison sentences of more than two and a half years can never become spent and should always by disclosed. Further information on rehabilitation periods can be found at Nacro's Resettlement Plus Helpline on 020 7840 6464 or by obtaining a free copy of their leaflet on 020 7840 6427.

DEFIN' NS

For the purposes of answering questions 36 to 42, to follow information provides guidance on actions which may constitute war crimes, crimes against humanity get cide, or terrorist activities.

This guidance is not exhaustive. The full definitions of war times, crimes against humanity and genocide can be found in Schedule 8 of the International Crimna Court of 2001 at www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2001/17 or purchased from The Stationery Office (telephole 08) 5522). It is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are familiar with the definitions and can answer the questions accurately on behalf of yourself and any dependants who are applying with you.

War crimes

Grave breaches of the Geneva Constions committed during an armed conflict. This includes an internal armed conflict and an international armed conflict. The types of acts that may constitute a war crime include wilful killing, torture, extensive destruction of properly not justified by military necessity, unlawful deportation, the intentional targeting of civilians and the taking of hostages.

Crimes against humanity

Acts committed at any time (not just during armed conflict) as part of a widespread or systematic attack, directed against any civilian population with knowledge of the attack. This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons.

Genocide

Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group.

Terrorist activities

Any act committed, or the threat of action, designed to influence a government or intimidate the public and made for the purposes of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause and that involves serious violence against a person; that may endanger another person's life; creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public; involves serious damage to property; is designed to seriously disrupt or interfere with an electronic system.

Organisations concerned in terrorism

An organisation is concerned in terrorism if it commits or participates in acts of terrorism; prepares for terrorism; promotes or encourages terrorism (including the unlawful glorification of terrorism); or is otherwise concerned in terrorism.

SECTION 10 - Declaration

- All applicants must complete this section

You must now read the declaration below and sign it. This must be signed by you (the applicant) and not by a representative or other person acting on your behalf. It is mandatory for the declaration to be signed.

Please note that this application will be invalid if it is not signed as specified above.

I hereby apply for an extension of stay in the UK for myself and any dependants listed in this form.

The information I have given in this form is complete and is true to the best of my knowledge.

I confirm that the photographs submitted with this form are a true likeness of myself and any dependants included in the application, as named on the back of each photograph, and that I have had the opportunity to see the UK Visas and Immigration photograph guidance.

I confirm that if, before this application is decided, there is a material change in my circumstances or new information relevant to this application becomes available, I will inform the Home Office.

As required to do so by the Immigration (Biometric Registration) Regulations, I confirm that I also apply for a biometric immigration document for myself and any dependants applying with me. I understand that the Home Office may make enquiries about any responsible adult nominated to be present when any child under the age of 16 has their fingerprints and/or a photograph taken.

I understand that all information provided by me to the Home Office will be treated in confidence; that it may be disclosed to other government departments, agencies, local authorities, the police, foreign governments and other bodies for immigration purposes or to enable them to perform their functions; and that, if such bodies provide the Home Office with any information about me which may be relevant for immigration purposes, it may be used in reaching a decision on my application.

I understand that my details may in certain circumstances be pained to raud prevention agencies to prevent and detect fraud and money laundering. I also understand that uch agencies may provide the Home Office with information about me. Further detail explaining when information may be passed to or from fraud prevention agencies and how that information may used can be obtained from the Home Office website.

I understand that documents provided in support of this population will be checked for authenticity; and that false documents will be retained and may result in my population being refused and in my prosecution and subsequent removal from the United Lange m.

I understand that the Home Office may also use the information provided by me for training purposes.

I agree to co-operate with Home Office officials, or any other officials charged by the Secretary of State for the Home Department, with conduction pre-issue checks on compliance with the immigration employment document application.

I am aware that the rules and I gulz to governing leave applications may change in the future and I do not assume that the requirement is covering any future applications will be the same.

I am aware that it is an offence to der the Immigration Act 1971, as amended by the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 and the National y, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002, to make to a person acting in execution of any of those Acts a statement or representation which I know to be false or do not believe to be true, or to obtain or to seek to obtain leave to remain in the United Kingdom by means which include deception.

I understand that if I am informing the Home Office that I have changed my gender, these details may in certain circumstances be shared with other Home Office colleagues. I consent to this, where necessary and understand that this information will only be shared in limited circumstances relating to identity and security in line with Section 22 of the Gender Recognition Act. I am aware they will otherwise be treated in confidence and that my rights under the Equality Act 2010, Data Protection Act 1998 and Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights will be unaffected.
