

Office of Manpower
Economics

Reward in the Public Sector: research seminar

10am to 3.50pm, 10 July 2015

Blackfriars Room, Fleetbank House, 2-6 Salisbury Square, London, EC4Y 8JX

Programme

Tea and coffee available from 9.30

- 10.00-10.10 Introduction
Martin Williams, OME Director
Margaret McEvoy, OME Deputy Director
- Session 1 Comparing public and private sector reward & mobility
Chair: Anna Vignoles, NHSPRB
- 10.10-10.40 Jonathan Cribb, Institute for Fiscal Studies
Public sector pay and pensions
- 10.40-11.10 Phil Murphy, Swansea University
Is public sector pay advantage explained by differences in work quality?
- 11.10-11.25 Questions
- 11.25-11.40 Break
- 11.40-12.10 Peter Dolton, University of Sussex
Total reward in the public and private sectors
- 12.10-12.40 Jonathan Cribb, Institute for Fiscal Studies
Mobility between the public and private sectors
- 12.40-12.55 Questions
- 12.55- 1.45 Lunch, Temple room
- Session 2 Topics on public sector labour market & pay
Chair: David Blackaby, NHSPRB
- 1.45-2.15 Ian Walker and Alberto Nunez Elvira, Lancaster University
Changes in the labour supply of doctors in the UK 1994-2014
- 2.15-2.25 Questions

2.25-2.55	Carol Propper, University of Bristol & Imperial College Pay regulation in health and education
2.55-3.25	Alex Bryson, National Institute for Economic and Social Research Performance pay in the public sector
3.25-3.40	Questions
3.40-3.50	Overview of day