Information released

I have made enquires within the relevant departments but unfortunately we do not hold the type of specific information you require.

As a management/finance tool statistics are held but appeals of this nature are categorised as a Webfiling issue which could include anything related to when the customer has filed the accounts via that service. Also appeals cover more than one category and can list a host of reasons so they would not be 100% accurate.

As you have not requested a specific timescale I have provided you with statistics that cover the period of 1st April to 31st July 2014, please note these figures have not been validated or audited in any way.
