Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your e-mail to the Ministry of Defence (MOD) dated [REDACTED] in which you requested the following information:

A copy of the Statutory Instruments in forces from 1998 to 2006

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

A search for the information has been completed within the MOD, and I can confirm that the MOD does hold information within the scope of your request; this is provided in the attachments to this request.

Under Section 16 of the FOI Act 2000 (Advice and Assistance), it might be helpful if I explain that there were no Statutory Instruments for the period requested. As a member of the Armed Forces Pension Scheme 1975 these would have been covered by your Service's respective rules. In the case of the RAF this would have been Queens Regulations which are attached to this request.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

Defence People
