AUTHORIZED AMENDMENT
 RA 1340 has been reviewed as part of the RTS Review and following a number of in-service incidents. There is a requirement for the Air System Type Airworthiness Authority to assure himself that each item of Equipment Not Basic to the Air System used to support the operation of the Air System has a safety assessment completed which is included in the Release to Service. This will include: weapons, role equipment, releasable stores, Airborne Equipment, aircrew equipment assemblies, carry-on equipment and other items used to support the operation of the Air System.
