Dear

Request for Information

Thank you for your email dated 8 January 2015 requesting the following information:

Can you supply a list of all Housing Associations registered in England, and their respective contact email addresses please. If possible, I would also appreciate the housing stock each HA holds, and what areas they hold stock in if available.

The Homes and Communities Agency (HCA) collects and publishes stock information for private registered providers (not Local Authorities) as part of our Statistical Data Return (SDR). The full dataset, in Microsoft Excel format, is available at the following link, along with a list of all Registered providers as requested:
