

Department for International Trade

Your invitation to Export Control Symposium 2017

ECS2017

This year's Export Control Symposium will take place on Tuesday 21 March at the Westminster Conference Centre 1 Victoria Street, London SW1H 0ET.

- Plenary session covering a wide range of global trading issues
- Four specialist workshops, starting late morning
- Networking 'village' for delegates and exhibitors

Cost: £108.00 per delegate (VAT included)

Lunch and refreshments provided

Use the booking form to register

Please fill out the booking form and send to:

denise.carter@trade.gsi.gov.uk

Denise Carter
Export Control Organisation
3rd floor
Department for International Trade
1 Victoria Street
London SW1H 0ET

Department for International Trade

Programme for the day

- 9.00 am Coffee and registration
- 10 am Plenary session commences
- 11.30 am Coffee and networking – a chance to visit the export control ‘village’
- 12 noon Workshops begin
- 1 pm Lunch
- 2 pm Workshops continue
- 4.15pm Wash-up session, rooms C8/C9
- 5 pm Close

Plenary session – 10am

- Current global trade opportunities and challenges
- How our new International Trade department can help you
- Introducing latest development on the new digital licensing platform

Topics will include

- Trading implications of sanctions and recent changes
- Overview of the new EU Dual Use Regulation
- Risks and Know Your Customer principles

Response from industry

Planned workshops

New online tools

- An introduction to the new, streamlined export control pages on GOV.UK and a demonstration of, LITE the replacement for SPIRE.

MOD Form 680

- Using case studies to clarify issues including private venture security grading and exhibition clearance.

US export controls

- This will be presented at two levels: beginners and advanced. Delegates can select their preferred level on the registration form. Led by global law firm Squire Paton Boggs

Know your customer

- Researching the challenges presented by certain countries and end users.