Thank you for your email of 23 October 2015 which requested the following information:

- “-The total number of unarmed Reaper missions in Syria from 1 October 2014 to 7 October 2014.*
- The total number of armed Reaper missions in Iraq from 1 August 2014 to 7 October 2014.*
- The total number of unarmed Reaper missions in Iraq from 1 August 2014 to 7 October 2014.*
- The date of the first and most recent armed and unarmed Reaper missions over Iraq and Syria respectively.”*

Your correspondence has been treated as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and we can confirm that all of the information in scope of your request is held.

The information you requested can be found below.

No unarmed or armed Reaper missions were carried out in Syria or Iraq between 1 August 2014 and 7 October 2014. The answer to your question regarding the first and most recent armed and unarmed Reaper missions in Iraq and Syria is contained in the table below.

	Iraq		Syria
	First	Last	First	Last
Unarmed	22/10/2014	05/09/2015	31/01/2015	08/08/2015
Armed	09/11/2014	10/11/2015	17/11/2014	10/11/2015

In general, one Reaper mission constitutes one Remotely Piloted Air System. Reapers generally fly armed when on missions to Syria and Iraq as they may be required to support Counter-ISIL forces in Iraq if the need were to arise.

The data contained in this statement is believed to be complete and correct at the time of issue. The MOD operational activity databases are frequently reviewed and any errors and omissions are corrected. It is therefore possible that future statements might not match this statement exactly. The MOD regrets any difficulty that this may cause but emphasises that our aim is to ensure that our records are as complete and correct as possible.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact this office in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
