You requested the following information:-

How many days the Secretary of State and his predecessors have devoted to volunteering since the general election in 2010; when the volunteering took place; and which charities or projects they donated their time to.

We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Wales Office does not maintain records on the number of hours, or details on the type of volunteering that the Secretary of State for Wales or his predecessors have donated their time to since the 2010 General Election.
