Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0815-16

Thank you for your email of 28 August asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

Please can you tell me the following:

- 1) Which countries have you given funding to in order to improve their judicial process. For example, as my other Fol request mentions, in Mexico you gave assistance to a project called Ciudadanos en Apoyo a los Derechos Humanos, have you given any other assistance to any other nation or charity to help improve the judicial process. The time frame of this is from 01/01/2011 until time of writing.
- 2) Please can you list which charities\organisation in which countries you gave assistance
- 3) have you ever offered the services of any other department (IE Ministry of Justice, Courts and Tribunal service) to help build another nations Judicial process

You clarified that your request should be narrowed down to Brazil.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request. (Please find below the information that the FCO can release to you.)

In 2015, HMG in partnership with the Brazilian Superior Court of Justice funded projects through the Prosperity Fund which focused on the improvement of judicial processes. These projects involved the implementation of anticorruption frameworks and open government and focused on the executive branch and implementation of legislation. Listed below are the projects implemented by GovRisk (UK organisation) during your defined time period.

- FY 2015/2016 – Judiciary Taskforce Against Corruption – Brazilian Partner: Superior Court of Justice

This project sent a delegation to the UK in June 2015. The Superior Court of Justice met with the public institutions: Ministry of Justice, Kingston Crown Court, Serious Fraud Office, Southwark Crown Court and Crown Prosecution Service.

- FY 2016/2017 - Justice Management Reform Model: better public efficiency and reduced corruption – Brazilian partners: National Council of Justice, Brazilian Prosecutor’s Office and Ministry of Justice

In August/2016 the National Council of Justice travelled to the UK and met with the following public institutions: Royal Courts of Justice, Her Majesty’s Courts and Tribunals Service, Kingston Crown Court, Southwark Crown Court and Crown Prosecution Service.

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely
