

GB Government funded research projects relating to the control of Salmonella in poultry through the National Control Programmes

2000 - 2013

- 1) Thirteen projects directly related to the NCPs defined as: developing tests, understanding the epidemiology and the analysis of the NCP, were completed at a total cost of £6 M.
- 2) Nine projects tangentially relevant to the NCPs defined as: investigating the immunology and biology of Salmonella, were completed at a total cost of £6.2 M