Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter of 22 May to the Ministry of Defence (MOD) requesting information on the cost of the Long Service and Good Conduct Medal (LS&GC). Your email has been treated as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. You asked:

'could you please inform me how much the current long service and good conduct medals issued to the three Services cost the MoD (including medal, ribbon and box). That is, what the supplier charges.'

A search for the information has now been completed within the MOD, and I can confirm that all the information in scope of your request is held. The cost of LS&GC medals, including ribbon and box, as at 2 June 2015 (rounded to the nearest 5 or 0), is between £50 and £55.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
