

British
High Commission
Yaoundé

CAMEROON WOMEN SCHOLARSHIP

Funded by the British High Commission

Instructions to Applicant

Thank you for your interest in applying to Cameroon Women Scholarship. In order to enable us to process your application on time and with accuracy, please read the following instructions carefully and ensure that you submit a complete application.

The final selection into the scholarship programme includes among other criteria, your interest in the programme of study at any state university or higher institution of learning that awards a university degree and your potential to make a positive impact in your community in the future. Applications will only be considered when they are submitted following the guidelines.

1) General Overview

Cameroon Women Scholarship targets women with strong leadership potential, who possess the academic excellence to pursue a Master's degree, but face a significant financial barrier to continuing their studies.

The Scholarship is funded by the British High Commission in Cameroon which also manages the scheme in partnership with the Cameroon Women's Scholarship Alumni.

2) The Award

The British High Commission's Cameroon Women Scholarship will award ten (10) scholarships for candidates starting a master's degree course at any recognized university in Cameroon for studies related to Commonwealth values and principles. The award is a lump sum of one million francs.

3) Course of Study

The areas of studies in which candidates are sought for 2015-16 are as follows:

- Human Rights
- Rule of Law /Governance
- Information and Communication Technology
- Science and Technology
- Development studies
- Media Management and Legislation
- Security (International Security/Security Management/Terrorism/Regional Development/Conflict Resolution/Peace Studies.

British
High Commission
Yaoundé

Candidates are to be assessed against the following criteria

- have the personal, intellectual and interpersonal qualities necessary for leadership in their home country
- be motivated to make a career leading to a position of leadership in their own countries within 10 years of their Scholarship
- be committed to networking to find global solutions to key development issues
- be able to use their studies and experience to benefit themselves, their country and the FCO
- be capable of successfully undertaking and completing their proposed course

NB: Application and personal statements MUST be in English Language irrespective of the language of instruction of the candidate and the school she will be attending.

Who is eligible to apply?

The Cameroon Women Scholarship is open to those who meet the following criteria:

All selected Scholars must meet the following eligibility criteria:

- must have secured an admission for the 2015/2016 academic year in any higher education institution of learning in Cameroon by 31st January 2016. Failure in securing admission by this date will lead to the withdrawal of scholarship.
- must be a national of Cameroon
- must hold an undergraduate degree (an equivalent of 3 - 4 years undergraduate studies) in any field with grade of at least a Second Class-upper (Hons).
- must have at least two (2) years work experience by 30 September 2015

There is no age limit for Cameroon Women's Scholarship.

How to apply

To apply, provide the following:

- A completed scholarship application form (see below)

British
High Commission
Yaoundé

A personal statement - a one-page statement/essay about yourself, your leadership potential, accomplishments and career goals (maximum of 800 words.)

An updated CV (include contact details for two referees maximum of 2 pages using font 12 Times New Roman.) You will be disqualified if you do not stick to the guidance.

NB: Only the above three documents are needed at the first stage. Candidates shortlisted for interview will be required to submit copies of university level transcripts and all academic certificates.

Submit your documents as an attachment to camwomenscholarship@gmail.com.

You can only apply via email. Your three files should be named as follows:

- appNAME for the application form
- personalNAME for the personal statement
- cvNAME for the CV

E.g.: candidate named Fouda Pauletta would have her files as:

- appFOUDA
- personalFOUDA
- cvFOUDA

Application deadline: 31 December 2015

Not following all the application guidelines will result to disqualification.