The Armed Forces Covenant

An Enduring Covenant Between

The People of the United Kingdom

Her Majesty's Government

– and –

All those who serve or have served in the Armed Forces of the Crown

And their Families

The first duty of Government is the defence of the realm. Our Armed Forces fulfil that responsibility on behalf of the Government, sacrificing some civilian freedoms, facing danger and, sometimes, suffering serious injury or death as a result of their duty. Families also play a vital role in supporting the operational effectiveness of our Armed Forces. In return, the whole nation has a moral obligation to the members of the Naval Service, the Army and the Royal Air Force, together with their families. They deserve our respect and support, and fair treatment.

Those who serve in the Armed Forces, whether Regular or Reserve, those who have served in the past, and their families, should face no disadvantage compared to other citizens in the provision of public and commercial services. Special consideration is appropriate in some cases, especially for those who have given most such as the injured and the bereaved.

This obligation involves the whole of society: it includes voluntary and charitable bodies, private organisations, and the actions of individuals in supporting the Armed Forces. Recognising those who have performed military duty unites the country and demonstrates the value of their contribution. This has no greater expression than in upholding this Covenant.

- Striving to support the employment of Service spouses and partners;
 - Invite to interview Service spousal applicants who meet the selection criteria in a job specification.
 - Advertise suitable vacancies through local Regular, Reserve Units and CTP.

- Endeavouring to offer a degree of flexibility in granting leave for Service spouses and partners before, during and after a partner's deployment;
 - Sympathetically review requests for holidays before, during or after a partner's overseas deployment, when the person has 'Post Operational Tour Leave' to spend with their family.
 - Consider special paid leave when appropriate for employees who are bereaved or whose spouse/partner is injured both physically or/and mentally.

- Seeking to support our employees who choose to be members of the Reserve forces, including by accommodating their training and deployment where possible;
 - Accommodate Reservists training commitments wherever possible.
 - Implement a HR Policy that allows Reservists 10 days paid leave in order to complete their Annual Training.
 - Where possible support the mobilisation of a Reservist if they are required to deploy.
 - Encourage all Reservists in your business to participate in Reserves Day.

- Offering support to our local cadet units, either in our local community or in local schools, where possible;
 - Engage with the Reserve Forces and Cadets Association to identify mutual opportunities (www.rfca.org)
 - Encourage employees to become Cadet Volunteer Instructors or Civilian Instructors/helpers.
