

[REDACTED]

prepared by the Contact Group (which do not bind Ahtisaari's hands but rather indicate Contact Group thinking in broad terms) state that once the process has started it should be brought to a conclusion. We know that Ahtisaari agrees with this and plans to keep the process moving forward. He has also made clear his intention to try to keep Belgrade engaged in the process and try to limit any damage to democratic forces there. He is nonetheless being candid with Belgrade. He told President Tadic, also in London earlier this month, to stop "daydreaming" and recognise that Kosovo would never return to Serbian control.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]