Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

I write concerning the estate of the above deceased who died in 1990 and wondered if any further information had come to light please.?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I have interpreted your request to mean that you require genealogical information in relation to the estate.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

I have withheld the genealogical information as it is exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This information is reasonably accessible to you by other means (see unclaimed estates list at: <http://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list>). The list is updated each working day and only contains estates which are claimable and solvent. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1) (b) of the Act.
