

Humza Yousaf MSP

Humza Yousaf MSP was elected to the Glasgow Region in May 2011 for the Scottish National Party.

On his election to Parliament, Humza Yousaf was appointed to the Justice Committee and Public Audit Committees and was appointed as a Parliamentary Liaison Officer to the First Minister Alex Salmond MSP.

Humza Yousaf was appointed Minister for External Affairs and International Development in September 2012. His responsibilities include external affairs, international development, culture and the arts, and major events strategy.