Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

Please can you let me know who the informant was?

Is it the informant on the death certificate or someone that was at /around the property when it was emptied?

Do you have their name?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I have interpreted your request to mean who the informant was who referred the estate to the Division.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

The information is reasonably accessible to you by other means, as it is shown on the unclaimed estate list and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
