Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

Do you have a death certificate and are you able to give the deceased's date of birth, place of death, informant or other details.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

The Division holds a copy of the death certificate which shows the deceased was born on 08/04/1926 in London and died in Lambeth, London, SE1. This information has now been added to the unclaimed list.

The Division holds information relating to the informant on the death certificate. This information can be found on the death certificate of the deceased. Certificates can be obtained from the local Registrar where the event took place or from the General Registrar Office (GRO), PO Box 2, Southport, Merseyside, PR8 2JD or by telephoning 0845 603 7788. Further details can be obtained from the GRO's website at <https://www.gov.uk/browse/births-deaths-marriages/register-offices>. The information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
