

British
High Commission
Yaoundé

CAMEROON WOMEN SCHOLARSHIP Funded by the British High Commission

FAQ

- 1- I am doing a doctoral course. Can I apply?
No. The scholarship is only open for master's studies. Doctoral and undergraduate students should not apply.
- 2- I started my masters last year. I have completed a semester. Can I apply?
No. Only those intending to start a postgraduate course in the academic year starting 2016/2017 are eligible. Your course must start between October 2016 and February 2017.
- 3- I have a master's degree in a course not listed in your target list. I would like to do another postgraduate course. Can I apply?
No. The number of scholarships on offer is limited. It is an opportunity for first time master's only.
- 4- I have been admitted to a private higher institute/university in Cameroon. Can I apply?
Yes. You should apply, provided that in your private institute/university you are pursuing a degree that will be issued by a recognized state university. Candidates wishing to study at the various lay private universities which have arrangements with degree awarding state universities are eligible to apply on an equal footing.
- 5- Will the scholarship amount be provided each year?
No. The amount provided (one million francs) is for the entire master programme.
- 6- I want to do a 'maitrise'. Can I apply?
No. The scholarship is for full master only. Postgraduate certificates and diplomas are not eligible, except where these intermediary qualifications form an integral and natural path en route to the full master degree. You must apply for or be admitted to a full master degree course.
- 7- I want to study for a master degree part time. Can I apply?
No. This scholarship is only for full time studies.
- 8- The course I plan to do is offered in French. Can I apply?
Yes. You are eligible, irrespective of the language of instruction. It does not matter whether you are francophone or anglophone so long as you meet the criteria. But your application, including your personal statement must be in English.
- 9- Can anyone facilitate the application process for me?
No. Members of Cameroon Women's Scholarship Alumni and staff of the British High Commission cannot help you get any favour on this programme.
- 10- What is the application fee?
There is no application fee. Do not pay or negotiate with anyone on this. Application is gratis.
- 11- Can I have more information?
Yes. Send an appropriate email to camwomenscholarship@gmail.com or drop us a comment or message on our Facebook page www.Facebook/CameroonWomenScholarship.