Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

Could you confirm that the estate is still live and solvent i.e. £500 or more?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

The Division only deals with solvent estates and these are advertised on the unclaimed estates list on our website.

Any estates in which the Division no longer has an interest, for example, when a claim to an estate has been admitted or the estate appears to be insolvent, will be removed from the list.

The information you have requested can be found by checking the unclaimed estates list which you can find here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list> The information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
