

8. At present the centre of Harare and other tourist areas, and the up-market suburbs are calm. We see no need therefore to amend the travel advice, but are keeping the situation under review.