ORDER under the Companies Act 2006

In the matter of application

No. 1300 by Virgin Enterprises Limited

For a change of company name of registration

No. 09773784

DECISION

The company name VIRGIN DEVELOPERS LTD has been registered since 11 September 2015 under number 09773784.

By an application filed on 24 October 2016, Virgin Enterprises Limited applied for a change of name of this registration under the provisions of section 69(1) of the Companies Act 2006 (the Act).

A copy of this application was sent to the primary respondent's registered office on 14 November 2016, in accordance with rule 3(2) of the Company Names Adjudicator Rules 2008. The copy of the application was sent by Royal Mail special delivery. It was returned "return to sender". A copy of the application was then sent by ordinary post. On the same date, the Tribunal wrote to Gary Humphries to inform him that the applicant had requested that he be joined to the proceedings. No comments were received from Mr Humphries in relation to this request. On 6 January 2017, Gary Humphries was joined as a co-respondent. On the same date, the parties were advised that no defence had been received to the application and so the adjudicator may treat the application as not being opposed. The parties were granted a period of 14 days to request a hearing in relation to this matter, if they so wished. No request for a hearing was made. The letters to the primary respondent and to Mr Humphries were returned to sender.

The primary respondent did not file a defence within the one month period specified by the adjudicator under rule 3(3). Rule 3(4) states

"The primary respondent, before the end of that period, shall file a counter-statement on the appropriate form, otherwise the adjudicator may treat it as not opposing the application and may make an order under section 73(1)."

Under the provisions of this rule, the adjudicator may exercise discretion so as to treat the respondent as opposing the application. In this case I can see no reason to exercise such discretion and, therefore, decline to do so.

As the primary respondent has not responded to the allegations made, it is treated as not opposing the application. Therefore, in accordance with section 73(1) of the Act I make the following order:

O-085-17

- (a) VIRGIN DEVELOPERS LTD shall change its name within one month of the date of this order to one that is not an offending nameⁱ;
- (b) VIRGIN DEVELOPERS LTD and Gary Humphries shall:
 - (i) take such steps as are within their power to make, or facilitate the making, of that change;
 - (ii) not to cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with a name that is an offending name.

In accordance with s.73(3) of the Act, this order may be enforced in the same way as an order of the High Court or, in Scotland, the Court of Session.

In any event, if no such change is made within one month of the date of this order, I will determine a new company name as per section 73(4) of the Act and will give notice of that change under section 73(5) of the Act.

All respondents, including individual co-respondents, have a legal duty under Section 73(1)(b)(ii) of the Companies Act 2006 not to cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with an offending name; this includes the current company. Non-compliance may result in an action being brought for contempt of court and may result in a custodial sentence.

In accordance with section 10.4.1 of the Practice Direction, as no request for costs was made in the application, no award of costs is made.

Any notice of appeal against this decision to order a change of name must be given within one month of the date of this order. Appeal is to the High Court in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and to the Court of Session in Scotland.

O-085-17

The company adjudicator must be advised if an appeal is lodged, so that implementation of the order is suspended.

Dated this 23rd day of February 2017

Company Names Adjudicator

ⁱAn “offending name” means a name that, by reason of its similarity to the name associated with the applicant in which he claims goodwill, would be likely to be the subject of a direction under section 67 (power of Secretary of State to direct change of name), or to give rise to a further application under section 69.
