Dear

Thank you for your email of 20 August 2015 requesting the following information:

"My name is [redacted] and I am an Army Veteran with 16 years' service. I am currently employed within the Fundraising Team of the charity Erskine which is based just outside Glasgow. We support veterans of all three services and their spouses through the provision of care homes.

We as a charity have been in existence since 1916 and we will be celebrating our Centenary in 2016.

To mark this special occasion in our history I want to send a letter to all regular Army, RAF and Navy Units asking for their support during our Centenary year. I have searched all three service's websites and unfortunately the Units and their current locations is not listed. I did manage to get the addresses of all TA units which was helpful.

I wondered if it were possible to either send me this information or signpost me to where I may find this"

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence and I can confirm that all of the information in scope of your request is held.

The information you have requested can be found via the links shown below, or on the attached Annex.

Information regarding the Navy, Army and Cadet Centres can be found attached.

Information in regard to RAF can be found via the following three links:
