FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0569-16

Thank you for your email of 4 June asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

1. Details of events sponsored by oil and gas companies at British high commissions and embassies in the following countries, for the years 2014, 2015 and 2016:

- Uganda
- Kenya
- Tanzania
- Namibia
- Malawi
- Ethiopia

2. The amount of money received by the above embassies and high commissions from oil and gas companies as sponsorship for these events.

Please include searches for events celebrating the following occasions:

- The Queen's Birthday
- The Queen's Jubilee

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

Please find attached the information that the FCO can release to you.

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website. Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely,

Africa Directorate

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
