FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: FOI 1055-15

Thank you for your email of 1 November 2015 asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked for:

Letter from Oxfam-Great Britain to British Foreign Secretary Robin Cook dated 9th May 2000 concerning military intervention in Sierra Leone.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request and a copy of the letter requested is provided under cover of this letter.

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

Yours sincerely,

Africa Directorate East and West

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
