FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0802-16

Thank you for your email of 24th August asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

Please can you confirm the information in this blog post relating to the number of Contract Award Notices published on Contracts Finder compared to the number of tenders published: 2 Contract Award Notices compared to 33 tenders as referenced in this blog: <https://openopps.com/blog/post/22/completing-tenders-analysis-of-contracts-finder/>.

Please can you send me details of the number of tenders published on Contracts Finder between February 2015 and October 18th 2015 and the number of contract award notices publish on Contracts Finder that match these tender notices.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested and can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

I can confirm between February 2015 and 18 October 2015, the FCO published 15 tender notices on Contracts Finder and 4 of these have award notices.

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely,

Commercial Procurement Group

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
