Information request

Can you please advise if Remploy Packaging have to request permission from the DWP to authorise pay rises for internally promoted staff? Can you also advise how many requests to give pay rises Remploy Packaging have lodged with the DWP for newly internally promoted staff in the last 12 months and how many decisions are still pending approval?

DWP response

Remploy are not required to seek permission from the Department for Work and Pensions to authorise pay rises for internally promoted staff. Therefore no requests have been lodged in the last 12 months and no decisions are pending.
