Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 19 February 2016 requesting the following information:

How many former Halton RAF Halton Apprentices are still serving. Their numbers range from 8150511 to 8152586. Then randomly to 8154786 (130th to 155th Entries)

How many were commissioned and remain in the Service today. How many at Air Rank. (there were 5 known last year).

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

Using the range of Service numbers that you provided I can confirm that there are sixty five personnel still serving. Of these sixty five personnel, twenty six have their commission and of those commissioned six hold an Air rank.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
