Thank you for your email of 27th February 2015 requesting the following information:

“Could you please confirm UK MOD ‘s use of the following products, and if possible indications of annual volume usage and advice on how we would go about offering an equivalent product, i.e. providing dual source supply. Do we need to register interest to a certain department, etc, if so please provide contact details .

The products in question are as follows:

- Rechargeable BB2590 lithium Ion battery used on various items of military equipment .i.e. radios , dragon runner, etc.*
- The range of Re-chargeable Batteries known as LIPS 10 11, 12 etc (Li-Ion Power Source)-used to power CIED products.*

Denchi Power is already a supplier of similar type products to UK MOD and has an Enabling Contract (LSBU10/1168), which was awarded by DSG in November 2014”

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some of the information in scope of your request is held.

I can confirm that the MOD uses BB2590 and Lithium Ion Power Source (LIPS) batteries. To offer an equivalent product I suggest you monitor the MOD’s contract opportunities advertising portal called ‘Defence Contracts Online’ (DCO); this can be found at www.contracts.mod.uk. DCO provides free online access to MOD tender and contract opportunities valued at over £10,000 and is updated on a daily basis. A hard copy version, known as the MOD Defence Contracts Bulletin (DCB), is published fortnightly and can be subscribed to through the website above.

Regarding annual volume usage, information is not held as the batteries are rechargeable and therefore their usage is not monitored.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,
