Calculation of Remote Gaming Duty

Remote gaming receipts and winnings

For more information on what is meant by remote gaming receipts and remote gaming winnings, please refer to Section 26E and Section 26F of the Betting & Gaming Duties Act 1981.

Progressive jackpot games

If you provide linked progressive games, you should include the full value of the player's stakes in your remote gaming receipts and include any amount paid into a central jackpot fund in your remote gaming winnings. You must exclude from your winnings any amount paid out to players from the central prize fund.

Total amount of remote gaming receipts in this period
Include total value of stakes in games against the house and any other charges made for use of your gaming facilities (for example, the rake on player to player games).

1 £

Total amount of remote gaming winnings paid out this period
Include total value of prizes provided to players, stakes returned to players and bonuses (or similar credits) made to players' accounts. Do not include amounts paid on behalf of one player to another player (for example, on games in which the bank is shared by the players).

2 £

Net amount of remote gaming profits (or losses)
Box 1 minus box 2

3 £

Amount of any losses carried forward from previous period

4 £

Net amount of remote gaming profits on which remote duty is due (or loss to be carried forward) Box 3 minus box 4

5 £

Remote gaming duty due

6 £

Any amount underdeclared from previous returns

7 £

Total amount payable Box 6 plus box 7

8 £

You can avoid financial penalties by taking care that we get your accurately completed return and full payment by the due date. If you give incomplete or inaccurate information, we may charge a financial penalty or even prosecute you. You have the right to appeal if we impose such a penalty.
