FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0885-15

Thank you for your email of 8th September asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

I was hoping to make a Freedom of Information request to find out, how much, if any, the department spent on the Uber taxi service last year and to date.

Ideally, I should like to receive this information by e-mail.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested and can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) has spent the following amounts with Uber, representing 872 transactions across our global network of 267 posts.

	Spend with Uber (https://www.uber.com/)
April 2014 – March 2015	£ 3,076.62
Apr 2015 – August 2015	£5,188.76

Once an FOI request is answered, it is considered to be in the public domain. To promote transparency, we may now publish the response and any material released on gov.uk in the FOI releases section. All personal information in the letter will be removed before publishing.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely,

Open Government Liaison Officer
Commercial & Procurement Group

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
