Dear [REDACTED]

PROVISION OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

Thank you for your clarified request for information about the number licensed pig keeping premises in the administrative area of Sedgemoor District Council, which we received on 7 January 2016. Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The information you requested and our response is detailed below:

“Invoking the provisions of the above captioned legislation are you able to confirm (a) the number of licensed pig keeping premises there are in the administrative area of Sedgemoor District Council; and (b) their approximate locations”

Clarity was then given on the postal codes:

“The answer to your question can be found on the internet. Try this address <http://www.doogal.co.uk/AdministrativeAreas.php?district=E07000188>

If not please let me know. It would be helpful to have the addresses of any establishments you find”

Please see Appendix 1 attached for the number of licensed pig keeping premises there are in the administrative area of Sedgemoor District Council, and their approximate locations taken from the postal codes supplied.

I attach an Annex which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you and contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the Access to Information Team at the email address below or postal address at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Copyright

The information supplied to you is Crown copyright, unless otherwise stated, and is protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research, and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, will require permission. You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown copyright information at:

<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/open-government-licence.htm>

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non Crown Copyright) information.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act 2000/Environmental Information Regulations 2004, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt. The information released to you may now be published on our website together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the result of your request for information you may request an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter.

If you wish to request an internal review, please contact: The Access to Information Team at enquiries@apha.gsi.gov.uk or at the postal address at the top of this letter, who will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Please note that generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
