Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

Please let me know if the estate is still available to be claimed by the rightful owners and if so, can you please let me know the value of the estate?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

You have asked the Division if the estate is still available to be claimed. This information is reasonably accessible to you on our website at <https://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list> . Any estates where the Bona Vacantia Division (BVD) no longer has an interest, for example, when a claim to an estate has been admitted, will be removed daily.

The approximate value of the estate can be found on the administrators Grant of Letters of Administration, dated 2 December 2014. The Grant of Letters of Administration can be obtained from the Principal Registry of the Family Division, First Avenue House, 42-49 High Holborn, London, WC1V 6NP or online at <https://www.gov.uk/search-will-probate>

The above information is reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1)(b) of the Act.
